Introduction

Marketing is regarded as crucial element for the success of any enterprise. Over the last decade, the retail marketing in India has grown significantly. We have witnessed the launch of a large number of retailers entering into retail industry.

Retail is the final stage of any economic activity. By virtue of this fact, retail occupies an important place in the world economy. Retailing refers to all activities involved in selling goods or services to the final consumers for personal, non business use. A retailer or retail store is any business enterprise whose sales volume comes primarily from retailing. Put simply, any firm that sells products to the final consumer is performing the function of retailing.

Retail market refers to place where a group of consumers with similar needs and a group of retailers meet using a similar retail format to satisfy those consumer needs.

The supply chain distribution logistics encompasses all activities and exchanges involved in extracting, processing, manufacturing and distributing goods and services from raw material through to the end consumer. It requires retailers to take a complete view of these activities and adopt innovative approaches to meet customer's needs with great efficiency. Keeping in view the importance of logistics the billing, transport and delivery aspects are very much required for running the retail business. In this module we covered the retail aspects like billing procedure in retailing, elements of transportation and delivery system in retail business.

Session 1: Billing Procedures

Relevant Knowledge

The maximum number of customer interaction that one faces in a retail store is the cash counter. Hence it becomes very important to keep the cash counter very efficient and manned at all times. An effective and neat cash counter is a sign of a very professionally managed store.

It's the responsibility of the cash counter in-charge or the head cashier to see to it that each and every cash counter is managed properly. At start of the trading it's important that the cashier assigned to a specific cash counter needs to look into the following points:

- ✦ The cash counter is neat and tidy
- ✦ To ensure the cash till/POS machine is working
- ✦ To check all telephone lines and EDC machines are working
- ✦ To ensure stationery is available
- ✦ To ensure returns are sent back

Cashiers should ensure that Q-managers are in place in front of the cash counter to avoid crowding of customers in front of the cash desk.

The head cashier should ensure this is practiced religiously every day.

Usually a head cashier is expected to generate a report which shows the total number of transactions done in all the cash counters, a detail SKU wise report, a detail tender wise report and a detail report in all individual cash counters which will reflect all the cancellations done, refunds made, and any other specific transaction made apart from the billings made. Based on these reports the head cashier has to submit his daily submission report to the store manager. Also all investigations are done based on these reports. Some software also has the efficiency to generate report period wise, apart from date wise, and also time wise, i.e. between a specific time periods in a day, individually in all cash counters. The more the reports are detailed the easier it becomes for a head cashier to investigate a case.

This highly loaded POS is capable of integrating with all types of POS accessories.

Telecom Retail Billing

When we talk about telecom billing then by default it is about retail billing. As defined earlier telecom retail billing is defined as follows:

Telecom Billing is a process of collecting usage, aggregating it, applying required usage and rental charges and finally generating invoices for the customers.

Telecom billing process also includes receiving and recording payments from the customers.

Retail billing deals directly with the end customer and comes with lot of challenges to meet end customer expectations and regulatory obligations. A billing is assumed to be successful as long as it is fulfilling following criteria:

- ★ Timely Billing: End customer's invoice is being generating on time i.e. nominal date. There may be some circumstances when end customer does not get their invoices on time because of some logistic issues. But it is IT's responsibility to generate all the due bills on due date.
- ★ Billing Accuracy: This is most important factor for the customer satisfaction and from regulatory obligation point of view. If billing system is not generating accurate bills then it can lead to serious business issue from legality point of view as well as leaving a customer in unhappy state.

Retail Vs Wholesale Billing

Retail billing deals with end customer and billing an individual customer where as wholesale billing dealing with billing to the following entities depending on situation and nature of business:

- ★ Billing resellers associated with a telecom operator.
- ★ Billing interconnects partners for providing interconnection to make calls to other operators' customers.
- ★ Billing roaming partners for providing services to their customers when they roamed in an operator's coverage area.

Wholesale billing is easy in comparison of retail billing and allows a big level of threshold of tolerance where as retail billing always needs to be 100% accurate. Wholesale billing can never if 100% accurate because of various reasons like difference in prices configured in two operators systems or difference in number of calls rated because some of the calls may got missed at any network element.

There are specialized billing systems which are being used to handle retail billing like Convergys and Amdocs Billing systems are famous for retail billing where as ASCADE and INTEC billing systems are famous for wholesale billing.

Wholesale billing can also be settled using retail billing systems by using simple reports because they do not deal with too many discounts and promotion types where as retail billing needs all these complications and can not be handled using wholesale billing systems.

All the concepts discussed so far in this tutorial was related to retail billing and subsequent chapters will discuss about interconnect billing, roaming billing and other billing types.

Session 2: Elements of Transportation

Relevant Knowledge

In general the modes of transportation in marketing management are (1) Road (2) Water (3) Air. These modes or a combination of it is used to transfer raw material to working spot or factory, finished goods to whole seller, further to retailer and lastly to consumer. In this module let us discuss about transportation of goods from retailer up to handing over to consumer.

Modes of Retail Transportation

As said in the above paragraph that transportation can be done in any of the three modes - road, water, air. But in retail marketing there are two important types - store and non-store retailing. In non-store retailing and in e - retailing in most of the cases all three modes may be adopted. Here postal department services or courier services are adopted. Both postal department and courier services use various methods/use various modes with main objectives to deliver goods at a shortest time and low cost. Normally a combination of different modes of services is adopted to obtain best result. This combination is usually decided by origin and destination points.

Some of the points which decide about modes are:

- ✦ Distance between two points is small: if distance is small and well connected by road, then, normally water and air modes are not considered.
- ✦ Distance between two points is too high and weight of the goods is small: A combination of road and air can be used.
- ✦ Distance between two points is too high and weight of the goods is high: A combination of road and water (ship) can be used.
- ✦ A combination of water and road is used when road connection is not good and boat is a mode of transportation.
- ✦ A combination of road and train is used depending upon facility available for the same.

In case of store retailing normally different modes of road transportation is adopted depending upon the situation. Here delivery of the goods is of two types (1) delivery of the goods from store to customer example: hardware materials, tails etc. or (2) from showroom to customer example: normal grocery items in kirana store. In the above two, method adopted depends on easiness of loading and unloading process.

In general retail transport can be treated as movement of goods from store or showroom of retailer to handing over it to the consumer.

Objectives of Retail Transport

- ✦ To deliver the goods to the customer in a short time.
- ✦ To deliver the goods at a lease cost.
- ✦ To reduce loading and unloading as much as possible.
- ✦ To improve safety measures during transporting.
- ✦ To adopt all legal requirement towards transportation.

Loading and Unloading of Merchandise

Loading and unloading of the goods is a very important activity in retail management. This activity is associated with cost, time, wastage, handling of material, safety of employees and others.

Factor Affected by loading and unloading:

- ✦ Cost
- ✦ Time of delivery
- ✦ Wastage of material
- ✦ Safety of employees
- ✦ Government rules

Objectives of Loading and Unloading

When the finished goods is received from factory or wholesale dealer the retailer must receive these goods in his store/showroom. For doing this job he has to unload the material from the transport device. In the same way when the customer purchases the material from the retailer, he has to load the purchased material into the transportation vehicle. These activities are called as loading and unloading of the materials. There are various good practices of loading and unloading, some of them are:

1. When a bulk order is obtained, send the delivery of the material directly from factory/whole sale dealer to customer.
2. Load the materials for delivery to the customer, as early as possible which helps in reduction in stock storage space, early realization of selling price, avoiding obsolesce and minimization of safety cost.

3. Protect the material from fire, rain water, theft etc.
4. Delicate materials must be handled carefully.
5. While handling hazardous material extra safety measures must be taken while loading and unloading.
6. While loading and unloading government rules must be followed towards safety.
7. Some materials cannot be stored for longer duration and it has to be handled with care. Example: vegetable etc.

Problems associated with Retail Transport

1. Maintaining supply chain efficiency in face of increasing risk and unpredictability.
2. Infrastructure congestion exacerbated by unforeseen or uncontrollable events.
 - (a) Natural disasters
 - (b) Labour strike and shortages
 - (c) Terrorism
3. Heightened supply chain security.
4. Increasing costs
 - (a) Inventory just-in-time to just-in-case.
 - (b) Congestion e.g. demurrage, fuel, traffic, mitigation fees, container fees.
 - (c) Security.
5. Using retail transport for cross border is very complex, time consuming and costly, for example, retail companies need at least 12 different permissions issued by different authorities.
6. For import and export of goods needed customs clearances before sending to distribution centers.
7. It is needed to translate all information into national or regional language trigger additional handling and logistical efforts regarding the separation and specific treatment of merchandise for different countries. Merchandise has to be logistically separated and relabeled to continue to final destination.

Retail Delivery Process

Fitting out a major retail scheme owes a lot to effective retail delivery management. We know retailers value flexibility. The ability to delay decision-making until the last minute is very important – enabling the latest trends to be incorporated into a store's design, or units to be let at short notice.

Retail developments, by contrast, rely on tight control and effective management to achieve trading dates. The retail delivery manager provides a single point of contact that balances the needs of retailers with the discipline required to meet the opening date. We know this can't be undertaken as part of another role. We use a dedicated resource to ensure that and we understand what the stakeholders need before they come on board.

Bringing together the centre management, existing tenants, new tenants and the construction team, we align all the stakeholders by communicating the design vision, practical constraints and risks face to face.

We make sure that agreements for lease, contract documents and warranties all contain the necessary safeguards and deliverables for a successful fit-out on site, driving out problems that may otherwise only become apparent the day a tenant arrives on site.

Once on site, we manage the process and interface between stakeholders. Everyone is kept on the same page and aligned with the commercial goals of the project.

We have used our insight and experience to develop a dedicated method. This framework provides a clear view of the process from inception to close out, so that each member of the project team knows what they are doing and when. In turn, this allows our clients to concentrate on structuring deals in the knowledge that everything will dovetail together on site.

The Retail Delivery is the management process designed to help guide our tenants from the design stages through to the successful opening and trading of a store within a Westfield centre. Fitting out so many stores at once can put tremendous pressure on supply chains and specialized resources as there are a huge number of developments completing during the same timeframe. Plan ahead and don't be afraid to ask one of the Retail Delivery team for assistance if you need to. The main stages in the Retail Delivery process are set out below:

1. Tenant's Briefing

- ★ The Retail Design Manager (RDM) introduces the vision for Westfield Stratford City and presents the Design Guidelines to your design team. The RDM outlines the design approvals process and all design-related queries can be tables at this meeting.
- ★ Westfield's Retail Project Manager (RPM) will answer your queries on any technical aspects of the project, discuss a programme of works and outline the process ahead. During (or shortly after) the Retailer Briefing Meeting, you will be issued with a Detailed Tenancy Pack which will contain all the information required for you to start designing your store.

2. Design Approval

- ✦ The Tenant will submit the concept design to the RDM at this stage. The RDM will review the concept design and issue comments and approval.
- ✦ The Tenant will submit a more detailed concept design to the RDM. The RDM will review the concept design and issue comments and approval.

3. Fit-out

- ✦ At this stage, the Tenant appoints its Fit-Out Contractor and the premises is inspected by the Tenant for access. Westfield conducts the Pre-start
- ✦ Induction and the Tenant submits pre-start information to the RPM and H&S for review.
- ✦ The RPM and RDM issue comments. Access to the premises is granted and the Tenant's fit-out work commences. The RPM and RDM monitor the fit-out.
- ✦ This includes the Tenant's Commissioning, Consent to Trade, Merchandising and Store Opening. Necessary steps are: tenant commissioning and landlord interface; tenant completed snagging; tenant issuance of H&S file (O&Ms), as-built drawings and statutory certificates to RPM; RPM Consent to Trade issued.

4. Completion Stage

- ✦ During the close out stage, the Tenant Snagging Remedial occurs and the Tenant issues as-built drawings. The RDM issues the Documentation of Works and the Developer releases the Deposit and Deductions.

Tapping customers to deliver goods would put the world's largest retailer squarely in middle of a new phenomenon sometimes known as "crowd-sourcing," or the "sharing economy."

A plethora of start-ups now help people make money by renting out a spare room, a car, or even a cocktail dress, and Wal-Mart would in effect be inviting people to rent out space in their vehicle and their willingness to deliver packages to others.

Such an effort would, however, face numerous legal, regulatory and privacy obstacles, and Wal-Mart executives said it was at an early planning stage.

Wal-Mart is making a big push to ship online orders directly from stores, hoping to cut transportation costs and gain an edge over Amazon and other online retailers, which have no physical store locations. Wal-Mart does this at 25 stores currently, but plans to double that to 50 this year and could expand the program to hundreds of stores in the future.

Wal-Mart currently uses carriers like FedEx Corp for delivery from stores - or, in the case of a same-day delivery service called Walmart To Go that is being tested in five metro areas, its own delivery trucks.

 - (a) Only authorized employees have access to the data bases;
 - (b) Each employee use his or her unique password or access code to access the data bases;

- (c) Each employee adheres to all state and federal laws regarding confidentiality; and

- (3) Retail sales records of restricted products, electronic or written, must be kept for a minimum of two years.

Maintenance of Records and Inventories

- A. Except as provided in paragraphs (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this section 1304.04, every inventory and other records required to be kept under this part must be kept by the registrant and be available, for at least 2 years from the date of such inventory or records, for inspection and copying by authorized employees of the Administration.
1. Financial and shipping records (such as invoices and packing slips but not executed order forms subject to Sections 1305.17 and 1305.27 of this chapter) may be kept at a central location, rather than at the registered location, if the registrant has notified the Administration of his intention to keep central records. Written notification must be submitted by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, in triplicate, to the Special Agent in Charge of the Administration in the area in which the registrant is located. Unless the registrant is informed by the Special Agent in Charge that permission to keep central records is denied, the registrant may maintain central records commencing 14 days after receipt of his notification by the Special Agent in Charge. All notifications must include the following:
- ✦ The nature of the records to be kept centrally.
 - ✦ The exact location where the records will be kept.
 - ✦ The name, address, DEA registration number and type of DEA registration of the registrant whose records are being maintained centrally.
 - ✦ Whether central records will be maintained in a manual, or computer readable, form.

- B. All registrants that are authorized to maintain a central recordkeeping system under paragraph (a) of this section shall be subject to the following conditions:
- ✦ The records to be maintained at the central record location shall not include executed order forms and inventories, which shall be maintained at each registered location.
 - ✦ If the records are kept on microfilm, computer media or in any form requiring special equipment to render the records easily readable, the registrant shall provide access to such equipment with the records. If any code system is used (other than pricing information), a key to the code shall be provided to make the records understandable.
 - ✦ The registrant agrees to deliver all or any part of such records to the registered location within two business days upon receipt of a written request from the Administration for such records, and if the Administration chooses to do so in lieu of requiring delivery of such records to the registered location, to allow authorized employees of the Administration to inspect such records at the central location upon request by such employees without a warrant of any kind.
 - ✦ In the event that a registrant fails to comply with these conditions, the Special Agent in Charge may cancel such central recordkeeping authorization, and all other central recordkeeping authorizations held by the registrant without a hearing or other procedures. In the event of a cancellation of central recordkeeping authorizations under this paragraph the registrant shall, within the time specified by the Special Agent in Charge, comply with the requirements of this section that all records be kept at the registered location.
- C. Registrants need not notify the Special Agent in Charge or obtain central recordkeeping approval in order to maintain records on an in-house computer system.
- D. ARCOS participants who desire authorization to report from other than their registered locations must obtain a separate central reporting identifier. Request for central reporting identifiers will be submitted to the ARCOS Unit. See the Table of DEA Mailing Addresses in Sec. 1321.01 of this chapter for the current mailing address.

 - ✦ Paper prescriptions for Schedule II controlled substances shall be maintained at the registered location in a separate prescription file.
 - ✦ Inventories and records of Schedules III, IV, and V controlled substances shall be maintained either separately from all other records of the pharmacy or in such form that the information required is readily retrievable from ordinary business records of the pharmacy.
 - ✦ Paper prescriptions for Schedules III, IV, and V controlled substances shall be maintained at the registered location either in a separate prescription file for Schedules III, IV, and V controlled substances only or in such form that they are readily retrievable from the other prescription records of the pharmacy. Prescriptions will be deemed readily retrievable if, at the time they are initially filed, the face of the prescription is stamped in red ink in the lower right corner with the letter "C" no less than 1 inch high and filed either in the prescription file for controlled substances listed in Schedules I and II or in the usual consecutively numbered prescription file for non controlled substances. However, if a pharmacy employs a computer application for prescriptions that permits identification by prescription number and retrieval of original documents by prescriber name, patient's name, drug dispensed, and date filled, then the requirement to mark the hard copy prescription with a red "C" is waived.

Paying attention to the details of your appearance sends a message to others that you will also pay close attention to business details, and the needs of your customers and clients.

What to do if you are injured on the job

By law, you are required to report any work-related injury to your supervisor and first aid attendant as soon as possible.

Larger worksites may require a first aid attendant and possibly a first aid room. During your orientation, you should find out specific information about first aid procedures in the workplace, including:

- ★ How and when to report an injury
- ★ Who to report the incident to
- ★ Where to find a first aid attendant, first aid room, or first aid kit
- ★ If transport to hospital is required, your employer is required to pay for it.

Reporting Injuries

For injuries, this generally means you must have been working when you were hurt and the injury must have been caused by something to do with your job. For a disease, this means that the work or the work environment must cause the disease.

Investigating Accidents

If an accident happens, your employer should have a system for investigating it and reporting it to the management. Your responsibility in the process is to be as helpful as you can to your employer and higher officers to get at the cause of the accident.

Introduction

In our daily life, we come across retail shops in the nearby residential areas or shopping malls. Retailing affects every facet of our life. Have you ever thought how many daily contacts we have with retailers when we eat meals furnish our home, have our car fixed, and buy clothing for a party? A retail store is a business that sells products and/or services to consumers for their personal or family use. If you look around, you will find different forms of retail stores such as departmental stores, discount stores, variety stores, speciality stores, convenience stores.

Retailers provide the goods and services you and I need—from food, auto parts, apparel, home furnishings, appliances, and electronics to advice, home improvement, and skilled labor. Let's take a look behind the scenes at the many facets of this exciting business.

A retail store is also classified by the type of products they sell, for example food products, durable goods (appliances, electronics, furniture, sporting goods, etc.) and soft goods or consumables (clothing, apparel, and fabrics). Often people think of retailing which are sold and bought in stores, but retailing also involves the sale of services: staying in a hotel while on vacations, a haircut saloon or a beauty parlour, a DVD rental, or a home-delivered pizza. Not all retailing is done in stores. Examples of non-store retailing include online selling or the direct sales of cosmetics by Amway.

Store operations is operating and overseeing all the functions of the store from setting up shop, deciding what type of products you want to sell, deciding on what type of customers you are trying to attract into your store, then ordering the products, hiring personnel, pricing the products, deciding on a location, taking an inventory, advertising the products, etc. Whatever form, the retail store enters into for buying and selling, every retailer rolls out a standard operation procedure (SOP) which includes all functions of operating relating to customer service, health safety and protection, maintenance and distribution.

In this Unit, the student will be learn about the basic principles of a store operations which includes the store layout, store design, store procedures and store maintenance.

Session 1: Store Layout

Relevant Knowledge

Store layout and design plays an important role in defining the store image. The store layout and design tell a customer what the store is all about. It is very strong tool to create store image in the minds of the consumers. It is defined as a physical location of various units of the stores that facilitate shoppers. It is a plan to make effective use of space. It takes into account the customer flow pattern, display of merchandise, permanent structures like aisles and fixtures.

Good Layout for a Retail Store

The success of a retail store is influenced by its layout design and the ambience (atmosphere) created by the retailers. You never get a second chance to make a first impression. This age old saying is especially true in relation to design and atmosphere of a retail store. The first impression given to the potential customer determines whether the retail store has gained or lost a buyer. The basic functional principle of a retail store is to show the products and sell the product. Both these activities require a space to accommodate products, services and people.

Space

The space needed for a retail store differs with the nature of the retail store. It could be a fixed location in a building, a more flexible location like a market tent often seen in fairs, or a mobile space like an ice cream cart or a street vendor.

Considerations for the Store Layout

A good store layout serves many purposes:

- ★ Store Atmosphere: The physical characteristics and surrounding influence of a retail store creates an image in order to attract customers. The store must offer a positive ambience to the customers for them to enjoy their shopping and leave with a smile.
 - The store should not give a cluttered look.
 - The products should be properly arranged on the shelves according to their sizes and patterns. Make sure products do not fall off the shelves.
 - There should be no foul smell in the store.
 - The floor, ceiling, carpet, walls and even the mannequins should not have unwanted spots.

- Never dump unnecessary packing boxes, hangers or clothes in the dressing room. Keep it clean.
- Make sure the customers are well attended.
- Don't allow customers to carry eatables inside the store.
- ★ Enhance Sales: The store layout should enable the customers to move around the store conveniently. This is done by preparing a circulation plan.

Circulation is an invisible force which revolves around the customers so that they cover the entire range of merchandise under display leading to maximize the purchase. Normally the destination category is kept in the last so that the customer is forced to walk up the entire store. In this way, the retail store owner tempts the customer to make impulsive buying. You must have noticed in a grocery shop that the popular items such as milk, curd are kept at the end. Why? Because they are necessary items and customers will certainly lay hands on them however far they are placed. If they are laid at the entry of the store, the customer will always remain foreign to the rest of the store. Ultimately, the aim is to make sales and earn profit.
- ★ Maximize Returns per Square Foot: A well planned layout enhances the utilization of customer's time and best of the shopping experience. A good layout provides a balance between available space for display and the return on productivity. In this way, it becomes important to decide the alternative design types, allocating space for bulk stock selling and effective use of walls and windows. These provide opportunity to customers to move around and experience the products in a much better way.
- ★ Match the merchandise with the format: retail stores are designed to target the specific kind's of customers. Have you visited the music stores like Planet M, Music World etc? What kind of ambience do you find? On the other hand, compare it with the designer boutique, jeweler shop or a home fashion store. Do you see any difference the ways store layout is treated? A music store focuses on youth so the fixtures are heavy filled by flashing lights and lively music. Whereas, the later categorized stores have lighter and organised serene ambience to capture the mood of customers. Therefore, different types of target groups by age, education, gender affect the store design, ambience and layout.
- ★ Assistance for differently abled women, children and safety of customers

The layout for the store should provide convenience for variety of shopper's visiting it. Now, if you visit the retail stores, Kine Globus, shoppers stop, pantaloon etc., we will observe the stores arrange for handicap access along with the rooms for mothers with babies and rest rooms for old people.

Care is taken that the furniture have no sharp edges and the flooring is not slippery. The main aisles are wide to avoid cramping during peak shopping seasons.

Hence, the importance of layout can be summarized in the following manner:

1. It guides the flow of customers to all parts of the store showcasing the best of merchandise offered on sale.
2. It provide for impulsive buying.
3. It permits the store to maximize the use of space in relation to non selling space in the store.
4. It aids the customer in selecting and comparing merchandise
5. It leads to maximize sales.

Steps for Designing Store Layout

Planning a store layout involves the following steps:

1. Determining the availability of space.
2. Determining 'space needs' for selling and non selling area.
3. Fitting 'space needs' for good customer flow and maximum sales per square foot.
4. Provision for self service
5. Types of merchandise presentation techniques.

Forms of Layout in Retail Store

The retailer must plan out each and everything well, the location of the shelves or racks to display the merchandise, the position of the mannequins or the cash counter and so on.

1. Straight Floor Plan

The straight floor plan makes optimum use of the walls, and utilizes the space in the most judicious manner. The straight floor plan creates spaces within the retail store for the customers to move and shop freely. It is one of the commonly implemented store designs. This type of design you find in Reebok and Nike.

Advantages

1. Motivates shoppers to spend time and explore the merchandise.
2. Maximizes sale through impulsive buying.
3. Appropriate for stores where selling approach is consultative and personal.

Disadvantages

1. Inefficient use of space resources.
2. As vision is blocked, the chances of shop lifting are higher.

2. Diagonal Floor Plan

According to the diagonal floor plan, the shelves or racks are kept diagonal to each other for the owner or the store manager to have a watch on the customers.

Diagonal floor plan works well in stores where customers have the liberty to walk in and pick up merchandise on their own. The major customer aisles begins at the entrance, loops through the store and returns the customer to the front of the store generally used in departmental stores. Examples are Ritu wears, Shopper's stop.

Advantages

1. Loops facilitate impulsive buying. The latest or fashion merchandise is prominently displayed on the main aisles.
2. Overhead directional signs and departmental graphics provide visual cues to the location of other departments helping shoppers while they shop.

Disadvantage

1. This layout is costlier to design, construct and maintain.

3. Angular Floor Plan

The fixtures and walls are given a curved look to add to the style of the store. Angular floor plan gives a more sophisticated look to the store. Such layouts are often seen in high end stores. You generally find it in grocery stores, drug stores.

An example of such type of layout is Reliance Fresh.

Advantages

1. Methodological, efficient and convenient.
2. Visibility of merchandise is better.
3. Useful in self service.
4. Effective use of space and cost efficient.
5. Easy maintenance of selling area.

Disadvantages

1. Not very aesthetic, looks clumsy and the very principle of impulsive selling is not served.

4. Mixed Layout

This type of layout blends the advantages of straight floor and diagonal store layout thereby eliminating the disadvantages of both. In spine layout, the main aisle runs through front to the back of the store transporting the customers in both directions. On the either side of this spine, the merchandise departments use either the straight floor or diagonal layout which branches out towards the back aisle walls. You find this type of store layout in United Colors of Benetton.

Session 2: Store Design

Relevant Knowledge

Designing a store layout includes deciding the best methods of presenting goods to the customer. Goods are presented either on shelving units, hanging from something, on pegboard, stacked or placed on dump tables. The methods determined are designed to optimize sales volumes.

Objectives for a Store Design

- (1) Implement the retailer's strategy,
- (2) Influence customer buying behavior,
- (3) Provide flexibility,
- (4) Control design and maintenance costs, and
- (5) Meet legal requirements.

Typically, a store design cannot achieve all of these objectives, so managers make trade-offs among objectives, such as providing convenience versus encouraging exploration.

Elements of Store Design

The basic elements in a design that guide customers through the store are the layout, signage, and feature areas. A good store layout helps customers to find and purchase merchandise. Several types of layouts commonly used by retailers are the grid, race track, and free-form. The grid design is best for stores in which customers are expected to explore the entire store, such as grocery stores and drugstores. Racetrack designs are more common in large upscale stores like department stores. Free-form designs are usually found in small specialty stores and within large stores' departments.

Signage and graphics help customers locate specific products and departments, provide product information, and suggest items or special purchases. In addition, graphics, such as photo panels, can enhance the store environment and the store's image. Digital signage has several advantages over traditional printed signage, but the initial fixed costs have made the adoption of this technology slow. Feature areas are areas within a store designed to get the customer's attention. They include freestanding displays, end caps, promotional aisles or areas, windows, cash wraps or point-of-sale areas, and walls.

Space management involves two decisions: (1) the allocation of store space to merchandise categories and brands and (2) the location of departments or merchandise categories in the store. Some factors that retailers consider when deciding how much floor or shelf space to allocate to merchandise categories and brands are (1) the productivity of the allocated space, (2) the merchandise's inventory turnover, (3) impact on store sales, and (4) the display needs for the merchandise. When evaluating the productivity of retail space, retailers generally use sales per square foot or sales per linear foot.

The location of merchandise categories also plays a role in how customers navigate through the store. By strategically placing impulse and demand/destination merchandise throughout the store, retailers can increase the chances that customers will shop the entire store and that their attention will be focused on the merchandise that the retailer is most interested in selling. In locating merchandise categories, retailers need to consider typical consumer shopping patterns.

Retailers utilize various forms of atmospherics—lighting, colors, music, and scent—to influence shopping behavior. The use of these atmospherics can create a calming environment for task-oriented shoppers or an exciting environment for recreational shoppers.

The goal of any retail location is to draw customers into the store and then persuade them to make a purchase. Good advertising and promotion work to bring customers in, but what happens once customers get into a store largely depends on the layout and design of the store. Both play a huge role in how customers rate their experiences and whether they decide to buy, and if they return or recommend the store to others.

Opening a retail store can reap many rewards. Retail stores must offer a unique environment that set them apart from others. Well-planned retail store design ideas concerning layout should allow a retailer to maximize sales for each foot of the allocated selling space within the store. By utilizing a grid wall, for example, a retail store can accommodate almost any product. Every inch of every available space must be efficiently planned for maximum display advantage. Nothing is an accident when it comes to retail store design ideas.

A retailer should study successful floor plans and retail store design ideas. One of the secrets to successful sales is to create the right atmosphere. Selling is a seduction of sorts and setting the mood is part of the equation. Lighting is very important; it should be bright enough to enable customers to easily see products but not too harsh. Spotlights can call attention to specific items. It is very important to select and care for store fixtures, as well as using special lighting techniques to accent your products.

Tips for Store Design and Layout

The signage displaying the name and logo of the store must be installed at a place where it is visible to all, even from a distance. Don't add too much information.

- ✦ The store must offer a positive ambience to the customers. The customers must leave the store with a smile.
- ✦ Make sure the mannequins are according to the target market and display the latest trends. The clothes should look fitted on the dummies without using unnecessary pins. The position of the dummies must be changed from time to time to avoid monotony.
- ✦ The trial rooms should have mirrors and must be kept clean. Do not dump unnecessary boxes or hangers in the dressing room.
- ✦ The retailer must choose the right colour for the walls to set the mood of the customers. Prefer light and subtle shades.
- ✦ The fixtures or furniture should not act as an object of obstacle. Don't unnecessary add too many types of furniture at your store.
- ✦ The merchandise should be well arranged and organized on the racks assigned for them. The shelves must carry necessary labels for the customers to easily locate the products they need. Make sure the products do not fall off the shelves.
- ✦ Never play loud music at the store.
- ✦ The store should be adequately lit so that the products are easily visible to the customers. Replace burned out lights immediately.
- ✦ The floor tiles, ceilings, carpet and the racks should be kept clean and stain free.
- ✦ There should be no bad odor at the store as it irritates the customers.
- ✦ Do not stock anything at the entrance or exit of the store to block the way of the customers. The customers should be able to move freely in the store.

The retailer must plan his store in a way which minimizes theft or shop lifting.

- (i) Merchandise should never be displayed at the entrance or exit of the store.
- (ii) Expensive products like watches, jeweler, precious stones, mobile handsets and so on must be kept in locked cabinets.
- (iii) Install cameras, CCTVs to have a closed look on the customers.
- (iv) Instruct the store manager or the sales representatives to try and assist all the customers who come for shopping.

- (v) Ask the customers to deposit their carry bags at the entrance itself.
- (vi) Do not allow the customers to carry more than three dresses at one time to the trial room.

Session 3: Store Procedures

Relevant Knowledge

Store operation resources and daily procedures creating internal controls for establishing retailing functions of the retail stores. The best time to establish policies and procedures for your retail business is during the planning stages. By anticipating problems before you open your doors, you can strategize how you'll handle special situations, as well as the normal day to day operations. This helps avoid making mistakes once you're faced with customers.

Standard Operating Procedures in Retail

Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) is a set of written instructions that document a routine or repetitive activity followed by an organization. Operational procedures are vital to the business of running a retail store. Procedures typically cover all activities in the store, from sales transactions to customer support to inventory. The development and use of SOP has various advantages for the organization. Following standard operating procedures increases sales, boosts worker productivity and enhances a store's image.

Standardization

An SOP minimizes the variation and promotes standardization through consistent implementation of a process or procedure within the organization.

Technology

Retail stores use some type of business software or point-of-sale system to track sales. This allows managers to determine what products are selling well and helps them track inventory. Retailers often use this electronic information to generate product orders when replenishing stock levels.

Inventory Management

Inventory management procedures pertain to the handling of products in a store. These procedures include receipt of inventory by verifying that each product is in the order as quoted; regular counting of inventory; and installing cameras or mirrors to limit or prohibit theft.

Marketing

Retailers use marketing strategies to draw customers into the store and entice them to purchase goods or services. Marketing tools include radio, newspaper and television advertisements; special pricing; in-store promotions; and signs outside the store to attract buyers.

Labor Practices

Employees are typically a large expense for retailers. Companies often devise schedules to ensure enough workers are available to cover the business' needs without increasing operating costs. Retailers sometimes hire younger people willing to work for lower wages to save the company money.

Store Procedures in regard to Exchanges and Returns

Depending on the size of the retailer, other transactions may take place at the point-of-sale. Small retailers commonly deal with lay-by, returns and exchanges at the point of sale area, whereas larger retailers may have a dedicated section dealing with these other transactions. The necessary documentation must be completed accurately and efficiently to facilitate the transaction.

Common Transactions Include:

- ★ Lay-by – allows goods to be purchased by installments. The goods remain the property of the retailer until they are paid for in full. The procedure for laybys varies according to the retailer's policy and procedures; however there are strict guidelines that all retailers must adhere to.
- ★ Refund or exchange of goods – certain conditions must be met for retailers to refund money for goods returned or exchange items. Refunds are governed by law under the NSW Fair Trading Act 1987, and the Trade Practices Act 1974. The Australian Competition & Consumer Corporation (ACCC) is charged with enforcing statutory rights under the Act.

In a retail environment, opening and closing times present unique security risks. At these times, employees are particularly vulnerable to robbery. The following policy can be modified for any retail business that stores cash and valuables such as banks and jewellery stores.

This procedure assumes that the store has an alarm system designed to arm/disarm the premise alarms (motion detectors, door and window contacts, etc.) and burglar alarms (safes, vaults and other storage containers) separately. The policy can easily be modified to accommodate other alarm system configurations.

Opening Procedure

At least two employees must be present to open the facility. One employee will enter the facility, while the other waits outside in a locked vehicle with access to a mobile phone. The outside employee will maintain a clear view of the facility and wait for the predetermined all clear signal from his/her associate.

If the outside employee notices anything suspicious, or does not see the all clear signal in a reasonable period of time, he/she will immediately call police and then call the company's security department.

Upon entering the facility, the inside employee will relock the front door and disarm the premise alarm system. If the employee is threatened while disarming the system, he/she will enter a duress code into the alarm system keypad.

After disarming the premise alarm system, the employee will walk around premise to look of signs of intruders or forced entry. The employee will pay special attention to rest rooms, offices, and other areas where an intruder may hide. If an intruder is suspected, or a sign of forced entry is noticed, the employee will immediately leave the facility and call police and then call the company's security department.

After checking the interior of the facility the inside employee will post the predetermined all clear signal. The signal must remain visible until all scheduled employees have reported for the day.

Safe and vaults should be disarmed at the latest practical time. If an employee is threatened while disarming the vault he/she will enter a duress code into the alarm system keypad.

The front door will remain locked until opening time.

Before opening for business, all camera views will be checked to make sure cameras are aimed properly. The DVR will also be checked to verify that it is recording. Any problems with the cameras or DVR will be reported to the security department immediately.

Closing Procedure

At closing time, one employee will lock the customer entry door(s) from inside. An employee will be stationed at the front door to let any customers remaining in the facility out one at a time.

Employees should take special notice of any customers that seem to be loitering or intentionally trying to be last in line. Anyone who seems to be intentionally loitering should be reported to the manager.

No customers will be admitted after the doors have been locked. Any employees attempting to gain entrance must show proper identification. No vendors or service technicians will be allowed access unless they have been given prior authorization.

After the final customer has left, and the front door has been locked, one employee will conduct an initial walk-through of the area. Special attention will be paid to restrooms, closets, employee lounge, storage rooms and any areas where individuals may be hiding.

One employee will be designated to conduct a final walk through of the premises before final closing. At this time, the employee will confirm that all cash, negotiable items and valuables have been properly stored and that all safes and cabinets have been locked. The alarm system controlling the safes and vaults will be armed at this time.

Prior to leaving, all lights should be turned off, except for those lights which will allow the lobby to remain visible from the street after hours.

Two or more employees will remain in the facility until final closing. Before leaving, one employee shall arm the premise alarm system and verify that the employee exit door is locked from outside.

There are many things that Visual Merchandisers must look after to take care of customers and their emotions and they should easily attract toward the shop and buy the products. Responsibility to do the Things

- ★ Do buy or borrow folding tables, or make some from sawhorses and plywood.
- ★ Do group like items together. The goods look more abundant, and it makes for a better display. Customers shopping for a particular type of merchandise can find what they're looking for quickly, and they're more likely to buy multiple pieces.
- ★ Do dust or wash your merchandise as needed before setting it out. If they've been in storage, such as draperies, curtains and upholstered furniture
- ★ Do display valuable items close to your house or checkout area to keep an eye on them, especially if they're small or fragile.
- ★ Do place breakables on tables that are out of the reach of children. Some shoppers let their children run wild, and those who do will resist paying for that broken collection of carnival glass.
- ★ Do place desirable sale merchandise at the street end of your yard or driveway, especially seasonal items and large pieces, such as furniture. It makes the sale look bigger and better,
- ★ Do display adult and larger children's clothing on hangers, and arrange it by size. It presents better, and the clothing is less likely to end up crumpled on the ground. If it's on a table, many customers won't refold it after digging through the stacks.
- ★ Do displays baby clothing and young children's clothing on tables? Fold and stack it according to clothing type and size. It takes up less space, and the small pieces are easy to straighten and refold as needed.

Mannequins showcasing the dress collection are fully supported by merchandise found adjacent to it, sharing the same colour story and similar styles.

There was thousands of people downtown during the Pride Parade weekend. In keeping with this, the store showed their support while promoting their merchandise.

Engage your customers and deliver an experience.

These sale signs maintain perceived product values.

This nice and enticing display upfront! It is effective in getting passers-by to come in as well. It is the brightest stores tend to attract the most customers lighting the entrance, especially the main focal display is sure to grab attention.

Responsibility to Not to Do the Things

- ✦ Don't go overboard cleaning and prepping the merchandise. You won't make enough money to recoup the time investment.
- ✦ Don't place your tables and clothing racks so close together that shoppers can't get through. Spread out across the driveway and yard. It makes your sale look bigger anyway.
- ✦ Don't deliberately set out merchandise that's been damaged beyond repair or recalled, and don't lie about the condition.
- ✦ It's fine to sell a nonworking vintage radio to someone who wants to repair or display it, but be honest about the condition.

- ★ Don't tell a shopper about functioning of the products, if it not.
- ★ A feature display such as the one shown on the mannequin sets an expectation that items similar to it can be found in adjacent units.

However, in this case, the adjacent racks show casual T-shirts. Where can one find similar dresses?

In contrast, this store missed a great selling opportunity.

On the other hand, these signs greatly devalue the merchandise.

Who turned off the lights? Lighting the entrance is crucial not only in getting attention but also in defining the start of the store experience.

The patrolling of premises is one of the most important duties performed by the security personnel. The security patrol falls into two main groups:

- ✦ Mobile Patrol
- ✦ Static Assignment Patrol

Mobile Patrols

- ✦ The security personnel on patrol is one of the most important elements of any security system.
- ✦ Mobile patrol visits are carried out on a client's property at irregular intervals.
- ✦ The patrol may entail a check of the perimeter of premises or may require a comprehensive internal investigation.
- ✦ The number of visits per shift may have to be agreed with the client.

Static Assignment Patrol

- ✦ Patrols on a static site are usually undertaken on a constant basis, checking both internally and externally.
- ✦ Alertness, interest and thoroughness are some of the essential qualities of an effective static security guard.

Control Room Duties

A Control Room is a room serving as an operations centre where a facility or service can be monitored and controlled. A definition or description of a control room for security would be “a facility for the provision or procurement of assistance or advice for guarding, mobile patrol and mobile supervisory staff in routine and emergency situations”. The function and duties of a controller therefore would be to provide for the following:

- ✦ Effective monitoring of guards, patrolmen and mobile supervisory staff by strict observance of rules for proper documentation, telephone, radio or other communication procedures.
- ✦ Recording of all appropriate routine and emergency matters to enable management to deal quickly and efficiently with the company’s contractual responsibilities.
- ✦ Maintaining a register of all keys held in the facility.
- ✦ Ensure proper surveillance through CCTV.

A copy of security manual or Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) and assignment instructions must be available within the control room at all times. Records of all incidents reported should contain the following details:

- ✦ Date, time and place of the incident.
- ✦ Date and time of reporting and by whom it was reported.
- ✦ Nature of the incident.
- ✦ Action taken, including onward reporting.
- ✦ Action to be taken.
- ✦ Names and addresses of all relevant persons present.

Assignment Instructions

An important aspect in the execution of the security tasks is that every individual must be aware of his/her duties for which written instructions must exist. They indicate what the security personnel should do on the assignment, where to go, how to respond to different situations, patrol routes and timings, lines of communication, comprehensive details of the assignment, precise instruction in respect of responsibility and accountability, working hours and handing/taking over procedures.

Assignment instructions are the duties and responsibilities of the security staff as agreed with assignment management and will also include the following:

- ✦ Internal Organization Chart: It will give the security guard necessary information as to who is who in the organization. It also gives information in respect of the location of their offices so that when patrolling the premises, adequate attention can be paid to them as required. An internal telephone directory should also be included.
- ✦ Company's Safety Statement: The statement ensures that the security staff is aware of all hazards in respect of safety, health and welfare at work and the management plans for dealing with various types of hazards. The safety statement is also beneficial to contractors and other persons working on the premises. They should be aware of the hazards at workplace and the procedures to overcome them.
- ✦ Standing Instructions: These include day-to-day working and procedural requirements.
- ✦ Emergency Plan: The plan describes the action to be taken in the event of a serious incident such as fire or a disaster, a bomb threat, evacuation of the building, armed robbery or other serious threats to the assignment.
- ✦ Evacuation Instructions: These are the instructions that indicate action to be taken in the event of emergencies. Location of assembly points, name and location of fire warden, list of members of emergency response team and other persons.
- ✦ Name and Address of Key Personnel: It includes the details of the senior personnel so that in the event of an operational incident or a major incident they can be contacted and informed as to the extent of the incident. In such events they may either advise the security personnel on what action to take or opt for attending the incident personally. Telephone numbers of these personnel, including their home phone number, mobile telephone numbers and any other numbers necessary to contact them.

In addition to the assignment instructions, most security supervisors issue post instructions to the guards that are specific to the post assigned to the individual. The Security Guards carry these post instructions in their shirt pockets at all times.

Responding to Emergencies

Security personnel are expected to react to emergency situations and to reduce the impact caused by an emergency event at a worksite. The training of security personnel should include the following:

- ★ Monitoring alarm systems and assessing need for response and follow-up.
- ★ Responding to an emergency alarm.
- ★ Communicating details of incident.
- ★ Emergency scene isolation.
- ★ Managing emergency situations.

Go to any mall, office, factory or institution, and the first thing that catches your eye are the Security Guards. They stand out because of their uniform and also sheer numbers. Security is attaining greater importance day-by-day because of the increase in the value of the assets and the threats to them. As the size of buildings and complexes increase, security operations become more complex and technology oriented.

Session 3: Material Handling in Housekeeping

Relevant Knowledge

Effective housekeeping can eliminate some workplace hazards and help get a job done safely and properly. Poor housekeeping can frequently contribute to accidents by hiding hazards that cause injuries. If the sight of paper, debris, clutter and spills is accepted as normal, then other more serious health and safety hazards may be taken for granted.

There are many different types of household chemicals used for disinfection, removing the dust and dirt and maintaining surface. The products are available in various forms such as powder, liquid or spray form. Depending on the type of cleaning tasks, the basic ingredients of various household chemicals may differ. Some of commonly used applications of household chemicals are polishing furniture, oven cleaning, lime scale removal and drain clearing.

Housekeeping is also a word used in retailing to indicate that the floors have indeed been polished, the carpets swept and the displays are kept looking shipshape. It is a broad term that is used for both indoor cleaning as well as outdoor chores like washing windows and sweeping doormats. Store cleanliness is an important part of retail. Customers want to shop in a clean, well-lighted store so they have confidence that the merchandise purchased there is also clean and of good quality. Dirt and trash have no place on the sales floor, and grimy windows and grubby walls and counters detract from this perception. Housekeeping is an ongoing task.

Housekeeping includes keeping work areas neat and orderly; maintaining halls and floors free of slip and trip hazards; and removing of waste materials (e.g., paper, cardboard) and other fire hazards from work areas. It also requires paying attention to important details such as the layout of the whole workplace, aisle marking, the adequacy of storage facilities, and maintenance. Good housekeeping is also a basic part of accident and fire prevention.

Good safety housekeeping can significantly reduce accidents and injuries in any type of work environment. By developing good safety habits, and by being aware of their work environment and any hazards associated with it, employees can help to create a much safer workplace.

Effective housekeeping results in:

- ✦ Reduced handling to ease the flow of materials.
- ✦ Fewer tripping and slipping accidents in clutter free and spill-free work areas
- ✦ Decreased fire hazards
- ✦ Lower worker exposures to hazardous substances
- ✦ (e.g. dusts, vapours) Better control of tools and materials, including inventory and supplies
- ✦ More efficient equipment cleanup and maintenance

- ✦ Better hygienic conditions leading to improved health
- ✦ More effective use of space
- ✦ Reduced property damage by improving preventive maintenance
- ✦ Less janitorial work
- ✦ Improved morale
- ✦ Improved productivity (tools and materials will be easy to find)

Housekeeping tasks can be grouped into a number of areas, including:

- ✦ Occupational Health and Security
- ✦ Safety Cleanliness (sanitation) controls
- ✦ Damage avoidance
- ✦ Fire prevention and protection
- ✦ Safe, secure storage systems
- ✦ Regular inspections
- ✦ Stock control
- ✦ Personal hygiene and appearance
- ✦ Maintenance and storage of housekeeping equipment

Common housekeeping tasks are:

- ✦ Vacuum cleaning
- ✦ Painting
- ✦ Weeding
- ✦ Maintenance
- ✦ Waste removal

Material Handling

Material handling is any transporting or supporting of a load by one or more workers. It includes the lifting, holding, putting down, pushing, pulling, carrying or moving of a load.

While handling the material one should ensure that the material is stacked securely, blocked or interlocked. All storage areas are marked. All workers understand material storage and handling procedure. Materials are stored in areas that do not interfere with workers or the flow of materials. Hazardous materials are stored in approved containers and away from ignition sources.

A person has to see that equipment is in good working order, with all necessary guards or safety features operational or in place. All the tools and machinery are inspected regularly for wear and leaks. These machines and tools are cleaned regularly.

Maintaining the work area in a tidy, clean and safe way reflects a positive store image and helps create an environment that is pleasant for all customers and conducive to sales.

Retail stores vary considerably from large department stores to much smaller specialty stores, therefore the housekeeping policies and procedures can also vary considerably. Team members must be familiar with their store's policies and procedures and occupational health and safety requirements as this will ensure the store looks its best and the correct image is being projected to customers.

There are many areas in a store that need to be considered, including:

- ✦ point of sale area
- ✦ counters
- ✦ walkways/aisles
- ✦ merchandise
- ✦ fittings and fixtures
- ✦ storerooms
- ✦ fitting rooms
- ✦ receiving docks

Housekeeping Materials

Maintenance of Housekeeping Equipment

All housekeeping equipment must be stored safely and securely and according to the manufacturer's instructions where appropriate. This will ensure a safe environment for staff, customers and any other visitors to the store. Cleaning equipment varies from store to store. However, some equipment is used in all retail outlets. Common equipment includes:

Mops	Window Cleaner
Buckets	Cleaning Chemicals
Brooms	Floor Polishers
Cloths	Hazard Warning Signs
Dusters	Dust Pans and Brushes
Bins	Ladders
Blades	Trolleys
Spray	Cleaner Vacuums

Cleaning chemicals often are hazardous and can be identified as such from the label. Many tools or items of equipment requiring cleaning are equipped with guards to protect the operator.

Equipment should never be operated without the guard in place and the manufacturer's guidelines must be followed to ensure safe use of equipment.

All waste must be removed safely and disposed of in an environmentally friendly way. Policies on waste removal and disposal will vary from store to store depending on current housekeeping policies and procedures. The Environment Protection Authority in NSW can work with retailers to assist them in designing and implementing appropriate waste disposal strategies.

When removing general waste it is important to:

- ✦ Use correct lifting techniques
- ✦ Wear gloves or other personal protective equipment as required move steadily – don't rush
- ✦ Remove waste from customers' sight
- ✦ Separate waste in accordance with store policies and procedures to ensure effective recycling.

Another important consideration is the environment - naturally, you want to ensure that you are following "environmentally-friendly" waste disposal procedures.

Most waste ends up in land-fill areas around the country. These areas occupy a lot of space, and in some cases the waste pollutes the ground so that the whole area cannot be used for many years.

It is estimated that over 50% of the waste currently occupying space in land-fill areas could have been recycled or reused, if people had followed responsible waste removal and disposal procedures.
